DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Applicant's election with traverse of claims 1-7 in the reply filed on 10/19/09 is acknowledged. The traversal is on the ground(s) that searching non-elected claims would not be unduly burdensome to the examiner. This is not found persuasive because searching different invention is burdensome to the Examiner.

The requirement is still deemed proper and is therefore made FINAL.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 1-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

4. A broad range or limitation together with a narrow range or limitation that falls within the broad range or limitation (in the same claim) is considered indefinite, since the resulting claim does not clearly set forth the metes and bounds of the patent protection desired. See MPEP § 2173.05(c). Note the explanation given by the Board of Patent Appeals and Interferences in Ex parte Wu, 10 USPQ2d 2031, 2033 (Bd. Pat. App. & Inter. 1989), as to where broad language is followed by "such as" and then narrow language. The Board stated that this can render a claim indefinite by raising a question or doubt as to whether the feature introduced by such language is (a) merely exemplary of the remainder of the claim, and therefore not required, or (b) a required feature of the claims. Note also, for example, the decisions of Ex parte Steigewald, 131

USPQ 74 (Bd. App. 1961); Ex parte Hall, 83 USPQ 38 (Bd. App. 1948); and Ex parte Hasche, 86 USPQ 481 (Bd. App. 1949). In the present instance, claim 1 recites the broad recitation of a wiper arm, and the claim also recites a wiper arm for window wiping system in vehicle which is the narrower statement of the range/limitation.

5. Claim 6, lines 2 and 3, 'the bearing pin' lacks antecedent basis.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

6. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

7. Claims 1,3-5 and 6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by US2003/014513.

'513 discloses : a method for producing a wiper arm, especially for window wiping systems in vehicles, comprising a wiper arm fixing part and a wiper arm articulated part, wherein the wiper arm articulated part is stamped out of a sheet metal material which is precoated on one side, and then is bent in such a way that the coated surface is placed on the inside, in that the wiper arm fixing part is joined to the wiper arm articulated part by means of a hinge pin, and in that the wiper arm is then provided with a layer of paint by means of a spraying or powder technique(Figs 2-6; [0013]) .

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

8. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

9. Claims 2 and 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over US2003/0145413.

‘413 teach the limitation except the thickness of the sheet metal material is approximately 1.2 to 2 mm.

The thickness of the sheet metal material is matter of design choice and It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention was made to design the thickness of the sheet metal material of ‘413 approximately 1.2 to 2 mm so as to produce durable product.

Conclusion

10. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. USPN 6964079, USPN6216310 teach similar subject matter.
